Dear Mr Dundon

Thank you for your correspondence regarding the upcoming 2014 Victorian Election, and the Coalition Government's commitment to delivering a strong economy for the benefit of all Victorians. I am responding on behalf of the Victorian Coalition to your correspondence on this matter.

The Victorian Coalition acknowledges VicSuper's interest in this matter and your ongoing contribution to informed debate. Additional detailed information on the Coalition's policies can be found on the Victorian Liberal website here: <https://vic.liberal.org.au/#OurPlan>

The Victorian Coalition Government is committed to building a better Victoria. The first thing the Coalition had to do on coming to office was fix Labor's legacy of waste and mismanagement.

The Labor Government left Victorians with things like the desalination plant, the North-South Pipeline and Myki – projects which cost Victorian taxpayers billions of dollars. Labor also bungled the lotteries auction, which the Auditor General said cost Victorian taxpayers around $3 billion – the biggest single loss to taxpayers in the State's history.

Through strong financial management the Victorian Coalition Government has repaired the budget and put Victoria in the strongest financial position of any state in Australia. Victoria is the only state with the coveted AAA and stable credit rating and forecasting strong budget surpluses over the next four years.

Only with a strong economy and sound, responsible economic management can we create jobs, provide twenty-first century schools and hospitals, build a world class transport and infrastructure network and do more to help families get ahead.

The Victorian Coalition Government understands that a strong economy and creating jobs requires a government that can facilitate the right environment and help people build the skills they need for a modern economy.

Thank you for taking the time to seek the Coalition's views on these matters. I trust this information is of assistance.

Yours sincerely
